

FORT, SEAFIELD AND WALLACETOUN COMMUNITY COUNCIL

FSWCC currently have a vacancy for a Specialist Co-optee to represent the community in Wallacetoun.

Community Councils give local people a real say in their community – in matters such as local service delivery and other issues which affect daily lives. The Specialist Co-optee does not have to live in the area to represent it. The Specialist Co-optee has no voting rights nor can they make up a quorum for meetings.

Anyone interested and is aged over 18 should contact the Secretary. The closing date for completed nomination forms is 21st February.
